

Social Inclusion Forum 2023

Revitalising the Roadmap: Progress and Priorities

The Social Inclusion Forum (SIF) is one of the structures that supports the development and implementation of policy to address poverty and social exclusion as outlined in the current strategy, Roadmap for Social Inclusion 2020-2025. The theme of SIF 2023 is Revitalising the Roadmap: Progress and Priorities

SIF 2023 will be held on June 1st in Radisson Blu Hotel, Golden Lane Dublin. It will provide an important opportunity to discuss the outcome of the midterm review of the Roadmap for Social Inclusion, as well as engaging with a number of the issues relevant to those experiencing poverty and their representative organisations.

SIF 2023 will focus on Children, Older People, Employment and Core Essentials - income adequacy, energy & food poverty

CWI & EAPN Ireland PREPARATORY WORKSHOPS

Community Work Ireland and the European Anti-Poverty Network Ireland will hold a series of preparatory workshops that will provide an overview of the Roadmap for Social Inclusion and the workshop themes, and provide the opportunity for civil society, communities and stakeholders to discuss the issues. Feedback from the workshops will be presented to the opening Plenary of SIF 2023.

Date	Location	Theme	Register
Wednesday, April 26th 11am to 1pm	Online	1. Core Essentials 2. Social Inclusion and Children	Here
Thursday, April 27th 7pm to 9pm	Kildare Community Development Centre, Meadow Rd, Kildare R51 RF88 in association with CKLP	1. Children 2. Older People 3. Employment 4. Core Essentials - income adequacy, energy & food poverty	Here
Tuesday, May 2nd 11am to 1pm	Online	1. Older People and 2. Employment	Here
Wednesday, May 10th 10.30am to 1.30pm	Northside Community Centre, Forthill, Sligo	1. Children 2. Older People 3. Employment 4. Core Essentials - income adequacy, energy & food poverty	Here

EAPN Ireland and the CWI would like to encourage people with direct experience of issues that emerge from the preparatory workshops to participate in the Social Inclusion Forum in Dublin. A small budget is available to support that participation. There will be further information on this at the preparatory workshops.